

Dai, Gujie

Digital Media Practitioner, Researcher, and Writer

s3801333@student.rmit.edu.au (+61)0477221651

EXPERTISE

My interests lie in web art, digital environments, multisensory experience, user research, the philosophical implications of emerging technologies, and shifting definitions of 'the Human' within the digital milieu.

I have a background in engineering and fine arts and I am doing a Digital Media degree at RMIT University. My multi-disciplinary background informs my technically and theoretically adept performances, web-based conceptual interventions, and audio-visual works.
